Bill Summaries

S1469: USE OF FORCE; JUSTIFICATION

Various changes related to justification for the use of force, including that a person who is unlawfully or forcefully entering or has unlawfully or forcefully entered a residential structure or occupied vehicle is presumed to pose an imminent threat of unlawful deadly harm to any person who is in the structure or vehicle. A person who is justified in the use of force is not subject to criminal prosecution for the justified conduct and may be awarded reasonable costs incurred in that person's defense if certain conditions are met.

First sponsor: Sen. Gould

Others: Sen. Pearce
